

Parallel Avocats advised Basalt in its $5m Seed financing round

Parallel Avocats has advised Basalt in its $5m (€4.25m) Seed financing round led by Entourage and Peak Capital, with the participation of Hexa, Alpha Star and Kima Ventures.

Founded by Guillaume Marquis and François de Fitte with startup studio Hexa, Basalt develops a collaborative AI engineering platform helping companies bring reliability to their AI products through a continuous loop of experimentation, evaluation and monitoring. The funding will accelerate the development of the platform and hiring in France and the United States.

The Parallel Avocats team that advised Basalt comprises Jérémie Aflalo (partner) and Candice Daull (associate).
