

Parallel Avocats advised Parallel (formerly Kiosk) in its $20m Series A financing round

Parallel Avocats has advised Parallel (formerly Kiosk Medical) in its $20m Series A financing round led by Index Ventures, with the participation of Frst, Y Combinator and Hexa.

Founded in late 2024 by Paul Lafforgue and Thomas Sohet with startup studio Hexa, Parallel develops AI agents that automate recurring administrative tasks in healthcare facilities, starting with medical coding. Its solution is already deployed in around forty public and private establishments.

The Parallel Avocats team that advised Parallel comprises Jérémie Aflalo (partner) and Candice Daull (associate).
